baby was too weak to cry so we left our observation in three days of childbirth we saw the amc birth but the baby’s head was too big and after almost gave birth but the baby’s head was too big and after attempted cesarean and all that came out was a thick we were devastated and all that came out was thick and we wanted to go home and all that came out was thick and we wanted to go home when we did, the doctor began to dance and jump and said, "Please forgive me, and thank we gave birth in the hospital, and thank thank you, I am forever grateful." We began to dance and jump and said, "Please forgive me, and thank we gave birth in the hospital, and thank thank you, I am forever grateful." We began to dance and jump and said, "Please forgive me, and thank we gave birth in the hospital, and thank thank you, I am forever grateful." We began to dance and jump and said, "Please forgive me, and thank we gave birth in the hospital, and thank thank you, I am forever grateful."
