the result of the annual banquet. They taught us the need to be grateful for what we have and to inwardly bless our food before eating it. They talked about the importance of working hard and being kind to others. They also gave us a pakistan.