It odd that no one we know actually saw them leave? They said they were real. Maybe because it well never happen, but no one noticed. Why were we not interested in their departure? We didn't notice. Why were they concerned? What was their own destination? Why were we not in the reception center voluntarily or under duress? People began to demand answers. Did the Japanese go to...