—MASAHIKE—
I can see the moon.

now
that's burnt down—

—ECCLESIASTICS 4:8-9—
their children after them;
become as though they had never been born: and perished; as though they had never been; and are some here be, which have no memorial; who are they be of them, that have left a name behind.